Col. J. R. Wallace and His Orchard.

We joined a party this morning, that visited, by invitation, Colonel J. R. Wallace's fine orchard on Peachtree street. The party was composed of the Agricultural Committee now in session and a number of our leading citizens. Colonel Wallace carried us out in his four-horse auction wagon. A pleasant collation greeted the guests. The Colonel has a gem of an orchard. His place comprises over three acres, and crammed full of the choicest of fruit. He has 130 varieties of peach and 80 varieties of pear, all in luxuriant growth. The trees are loaded down with the luscious fruit. Seventy-five bushels are ready for use now. The guests were delighted with the exhibition. This orchard has been grown since the war.

Colonel Holcombe was called to the chair, and Colonel Baugh offered complimentary resolutions to Colonel Wallace, which we will give in the morning.

GEORGIA.

NEW HEBREW PASTOR.—The Rev. Maurice Treichenberg was unanimously elected Minister of the Hebrew congregation to supply the vacancy caused by the removal of the Rev. A. Blum to Galveston, Texas.—Augusta Constitutionalist.

Master Frederick Warner, aged about 15 years, eldest son of Mr. L. P. Warner of this city, died early Sunday morning.—Columbus Sun.

THE LEASE OF THE MACON AND WESTERN BY THE CENTRAL AND BULLOCH'S INTERFERENCE.—The pendancy of this litigation was a God-send to Bullock. He saw in it another chance to rob the treasury, and at the same time strengthen his own position. He assumes and honest Executive as he is, feared lest the State might suffer unless he secured the services of able lawyers to represent her interest in the litigation. He was not willing to leave the case in the hands of the lawyers of the complainants, though the general opinion among members of the bar is that they are as able, astute and intelligent as any of the profession. He therefore calls to the aid of the State—not the Attorney General, who receives a large salary for such services—four lawyers for, we suppose, big fees, to aid the complainants in their effort to rob the lessee.

In making the selections it must be confessed that Bullock exhibited his usual cunning. One he chosen is a Democratic State Senator, and that body is so near equally divided that the effect of one vote may save Bullock's head from the November slaughter. Another of the select is a Democrat contesting the seat of a negro who has the certificate of election to the next House of Representatives. Another is a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee, and still another is a leading and influential Democrat in the Cherokee county. All good lawyers we admit, all honest and conscientious gentlemen, who could not be persuaded to do a mean or dishonest act. Yet all are mere men—liable to be insensibly influenced by their feelings or prejudices. We know that each and every one of them would scorn the imputation of an improper act. We do not believe that they considered the motives which prompted Bullock to select them as attorneys in this case. Nevertheless, we believe, and the public will believe, that they were selected by Bullock, not for the good that might accrue to the State from their services, but because he wished to put them under obligations to him—such obligations as he thought might influence them in their future conduct as members of the Democratic party, and as members of the Legislature.—Augusta Chronicle.

VARNEY GASKILL.—We copy, as requested, the explanation which this gentleman has made concerning his connection with the Dobbins claim on the State Road, and the settlement of it. In our judgment, Mr. Gaskill had better never have made such an explanation. It exhibits him as using his connection with the State Road, and as an incidental subordinate officer of the State, to extort from the State a much larger sum of money than a claimant demanded! And he extorted it, not for the claimant, but for himself. Even could he make it appear that such a proceeding was sanctioned by the practice of lawyers, that would not relieve it from the stigma of fraud; but we believe that the legal fraternity will, in consequence of this act, decline any professional association with Mr. Gaskill as emphatically as the people of the State will hereafter dispense with his "services" in any capacity.—Columbus Enquirer.

The weather has been unusually favorable to the farming interests during the past week. A correspondent at Colquechee reports "corn and cotton on red land are first-rate, but on gray just the reverse. Oats have turned out much better than was expected a few weeks ago. The fruit crop is very good."—Monroe Advertiser.

Wm. B. Hodgson, of Savannah, is dead. He was once Consul at Constantinople and Tunis. He was a fine linguist, speaking Spanish, Italian, French, etc.

THE ATLANTA AND SAVANNAH ROAD. I think the Tennille Railroad should be a straight line to Griffin, that is, in a direct line with the Griffin and Newnan Railroad, instead of running forty-four miles parallel with the Macon and Western Railroad to Atlanta—Griffin being about the same distance from Newnan as Atlanta—thus saving over forty miles of railroad construction, which would cost, with equipments one million of dollars. The Macon and Western Railroad would no doubt place the Western freights at satisfactory rates. The difference in distance coming via Griffin by the projected road direct from Atlanta would not be over three miles, while the expense of building forty-four miles would be avoided.—Cor. Savannah News.

NEGRO WITNESSES IN SAVANNAH.—Lawyer—Handy, have you ever been found guilty before any court?

Answer—Yes, sir.

Lawyer—I mean have you ever been guilty of stealing?

Answer—Well now, sir, de last time dey fotch me here I was not guilty, but I tell you I aint gwine to take anyting dats out my reach, an I aint gwine to reach arter none dese small things nudder.—Savannah Advertiser.

The corn crop never looked finer, and blackberries were never more abundant.

We understand that four or five surveyors arrive in town yesterday, enroute for Van Wert, their object being to survey the Carnesville and Van Wert, alias the Cherokee Railroad to that point (Van Wert,) to the Alabama line. Another move in the right direction.—Cornesville Express.

The Macon and Brunswick Railroad will be begun right away. The average hight of the cotton weed in Southwestern Georgia will not exceed five inches, says the Macon Telegraph. Corn will suffer some.

Hon. P. M. Russell, of Savannah, has been admitted to the bar.

The papers are crying out "hear from Dobbins in the Gaskill-Blodgett indictment. Old Uncle Bob Gray dead, says the Sandersville Georgian.

CROP REPORT.—The prospect for abundant corn crop, is not near so good as a week ago. The effect of the flood was, so to speak, is more apparent now than at the time during the season. The sudden change from constant rains to hot dry days, has told disastrously. The area is quite large, and we hope for an average yield. The cotton is also rapidly freed from grass, and is improving as could reasonably be expected under the circumstances, though behind what it should be the first of July. Wheat threshing is under way, and does not promise more than one-third of a crop at best.—Sandersville Georgian.

An Interesting Letter.

From the Era.]

ATLANTA, GA., June 27, 1871.

Messrs. A. K. Seago, J. R. Wallace and others:

GENTLEMEN—Your letter, dated the 16th inst., and postmarked the 25th, came to hand yesterday. In the meantime, however, I had seen it published, together with your resolutions, in the city papers.

HE WILL NOT BE DISCHARGED FROM "OUR COMPANY."

In reply to this extraordinary production, I have to state that I am not "discharged" from "our company," and will not be.

Your allegation that I am exerting all my energies for the purpose of defeating our company in recovering their rights as the lawful lessees of the Western and Atlantic Railroad, and that my real interests are with the present lessees, is wholly gratuitous, unfounded, and utterly false. I have no connection whatever with the present lessees, and no interest in common with them, direct or remote, positive or contingent. All the interest I have in this matter is with "our company," composed of A. K. Seago, myself, and others. That interest I acquired honestly, and I will not be illegally deprived of it.

HE DID NOT SEEK, BUT WAS SOUGHT.

I did not seek Mr. Seago, and other members of the company, and solicit an alliance with them. They sought me; and the connection was formed at their solicitation, not mine. I have acted in perfect good faith with the company, and the State, in the whole matter. When it was proposed to use part of the stock of the company, or to offer to use it, with a high official to aid us in securing the lease, I resisted it, because I considered it illegal and immoral to offer it. I was satisfied the person to be approached would scorn it, but if it had been otherwise, his acceptance of it would have made the lease void, if granted to us, and in no event could I entertain the proposition to that effect which Mr. Seago, in behalf of the company, proposed should be carried out through me.

HE IS "IN" FOR THE FIGHT.

I have been ready from the day the lease was awarded to the present lessees, and am still ready, to pay my part of any expense necessary to set aside their lease, if by so doing we can secure it to our company. And I now again, once for all, hereby reiterate my readiness to do so, and will pay my fair proportion whenever action is taken and the money needed. I am in good earnest in this fight, and I do not propose that my own company, any more than the present lessees, shall deprive me of my legal rights in the premises. I shall be a party to any action brought, or bill filed, and will see to it that "our company" do not rob me of my rights in the recovery, if there be one, while there is any law to protect me in their enjoyment.

As this matter has taken the direction it has, I feel authorized to state some further facts that will show the animus by which Mr. Seago and others have been controlled in this matter, in their attempt to do injustice to me.

OBJECTS TO TRANSFER HIS INTEREST.

During the month of May last I received from A. K. Seago a letter, of which the following is a copy:

ATLANTA, May 2, 1871.

HON. FOSTER BLODGETT—Dear Sir: Most of the old company have gone out and transferred their interest—Mr. Dobbins among others. We will thank you to sign the enclosed transfer; also authority for me to fill the blanks. Your draft or order for ten thousand dollars will be paid on presentation. This is more than we have paid any one else.

Regret to hear of Mrs B.'s severe illness.

Respectfully,

A. K. SEAGO.

The following is a copy (in the handwriting of Mr. Seago) of the inclosed transfer, referred to in the above letter:

STATE OF GEORGIA, }
FULTON COUNTY, May 2, 1871. }

Whereas, Miles G. Dobbins, A. K. Seago, J. R. Wallace, William McNaught, and others, formed themselves into a company for the purpose of leasing the Western and Atlantic Railroad, under a recent act of the Legislature of the State of Georgia, and did, in pursuance of the said act, put in their bid for the lease of said road, to the Governor of said State, I being a member of said Company and interested in said bid, do, for and in consideration of ten dollars, to me in hand paid, transfer all the right, title, interest and claim, which I have at this time, or may hereafter be entitled to, in and to the Western and Atlantic Railroad with its appurtenances, growing out of the said bid thus made for the lease thereof to ——; and hereby authorize him to take my place in said Company.

I hereby authorize and empower A. K. Seago to fill the blank with such name as he may select in the above transfer."

BLODGETT'S ESTIMATE VS. SEAGO'S.

Now, I have only to say in this connection that Mr. Seago valued our chances for the lease much lower than I do. He offered me the pitiful sum of ten dollars, and says that this is more than we have paid any one else. Truly, our stock has reached a low point in the market. I own $50,000 of it, for which I am offered by my associate $10. I, however, inserted after the word ten the word thousand but did not accept, and I afterwards told him that my interest was not for sale.

FIXING UP FOR A "SWEAR."

In an interview we had on the subject, he stated that he wished me still to have an interest. That the object was to make the assignment so that he and I could both swear I had no interest, but that I should have my interest again so soon as he received the road. That my interest should still exist in fact; that he simply wanted to fix it so we could swear I had none. I told him I did not intend to part with it; and I could not under such circumstances swear that I did not have an interest, if I were to make such an assignment, and I did not see how he could swear it.

BLODGETT NEEDED TO "RUN" THE REPUBLICANS OF THE LEGISLATURE.

Mr. Seago stated that he did not wish me out of the company; that in case we set aside the present lease, the company would want the present lessees, with the Republican members my influence with the Republican members of the Legislature, while they used theirs with the Democrats to secure the lease to ourselves, but that it would give us strength if I would assign my interest as proposed by him.

VIRTUOUS SOUL RECOILS FROM "IMMORAL PRACTICES."

I have felt it proper, in view of the late action of "our company," prompted by Mr. Seago, which they have thrown before the public, to state these facts, that all may see the motive that has influenced their conduct. I determined in every legal way to insist on our rights as against the title of the lessees. When I have more leisure reference the public many more facts in connection with the transactions, though I have our company, when and where, and no bid was canvassed and perfect confidence more fully how I became

Whatever it [illegible] close or proposes connected with it have [illegible] that I have [illegible] able to show, as above [illegible] mpany ed fairly and honorably [illegible] State in the [illegible]

As you have published your letter and resolutions before I received any copy, I shall publish this as my reply. And I am willing to leave it to a just and discriminating public whether, after you sought me and urged me to join you as a member of the company, and I have kept faith with you, your present conduct is manly, upright or honorable.

Respectfully, FOSTER BLODGETT.

CARROLL COUNTY.

Crops and Other Matters.

LOYAL, CARROLL CO., GA., June 25, 1871.

Editor Constitution: I am no correspondent of your paper, but I believe no one has written you anything from Carroll recently, so if you see proper I would like to see the following in the columns of THE CONSTITUTION:

Our wheat crop this year is very sorry. It had the rust on the blades which injured it to a considerable extent, and in addition to that, it had a kind of a mould on the stalk that was worse than all, consequently there is but little wheat made in Carroll this year. As for fruit, we have peaches and plums in abundance, but the apple crop in most sections is short. Our corn and cotton is about an average. We have had an abundance of rain all spring, which has kept most farmers "in the grass;" but I think if the rain will continue on enough to keep up a good season, we will make corn by the bushel and cotton by the bale.

The general health in Carroll is good as usual. We hope to escape the chills entirely. All we lack in Carroll is a railroad, and when we (if ever) get ours finished, it will add greatly to the value of land in these parts.

Yours truly,

J. A. ROBERSON.

A GOOD SIGN.—The New York World gives the Radicals to understand that though it recognizes the new amendments as parts of the Federal Constitution, it does not acknowledge the Radical construction of them to be admissible. It proceeds to show that neither of them justifies, much less authorizes, such a law as the Ku-Klux act.

☞ We learn from a funeral notice in THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION of Sunday, that Dr. John B. Baird, formerly of this city, died in Atlanta, and was to have been buried on Sunday morning. Dr. Baird made many friends in Columbus, who will regret to hear of his death.—Columbus Enquirer.

DEFIES REFUTATION.

BY W. A. HEMPHILL & CO.

I. W. AVERY, Editor.

Morning Edition.

ATLANTA:

THURSDAY, JUNE 29, 1871.

Correction.

In the letter of Foster Blodgett the word "thousand" was improperly interpolated in Mr. Seago's letter of May 2d.

☞ The crop reports from a few points in Minnesota, Iowa and Wisconsin indicate very poor prospects from Minnesota, but Iowa and Wisconsin come in much better than was expected. The recent heavy rains have done much good, and an average crop is anticipated.

Our Telegraphic Dispatches.

We call the attention of our readers and the public to the superiority of our telegraphic dispatches. Our Associated Press dispatches and our specials together filled nearly three columns of Sunday's paper. We gave almost a column of telegraphic markets. Indeed, it would be difficult to surpass our present telegraphic reports.

In this connection we call attention to THE EVENING CONSTITUTION, which appears at 3 o'clock every afternoon, containing the latest telegrams from every direction up to the hour of going to press.

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.

Officially Reported for The Constitution by the Supreme Court Reporter, Col. N. J. Hammond.

AS THE CONSTITUTION has heretofore done, it will continue to publish the official report of the Supreme Court Decisions.

Col. Hammond, the reporter, has been engaged by THE CONSTITUTION since the first sitting of the Court in Atlanta, and will furnish the Decisions to THE CONSTITUTION exclusively. We make this announcement in answer to private letters received from lawyers in different parts of the State. As the Supreme Court meets very soon, (the 2d week in July,) our legal friends will see the advantage of subscribing at once.

Andrew J. Donaldson.

This old gentleman who for a number of years has dropped out of public mention, but who enjoyed at one time quite a celebrity, has recently died in Memphis. He was a native Tennessean, and 74 years old. He graduated at West Point in 1822, second in his class. He was private Secretary to Andrew Jackson from 1829 to 1836. He was Minister to the Republic of Texas and conducted the negotiations connected with the annexation of that State. In 1845 President Polk appointed him Minister to Prussia and Germany. He was a delegate to the Southern Convention of 1850, in Nashville. As editor of the Washington Union, the then foremost Democratic journal of the country, he showed great ability, following Mr. Ritchie. In 1856 he ran on the Fillmore ticket for the Vice Presidency. Since then he has lived entirely in private life in Tennessee. He was both able, honest and earnest. He belonged to the Jefferson school of politics.

Akerman.

Attorney General Akerman is sure to retire from the Cabinet. His place is either to be filled by Solicitor General Bristow or General John M. Harlan, of Kentucky. Either of them would very ably fill the post for which, according to the constitution, a man learned in the law shall be chosen, and Attorney General Akerman, although quite learned in law that is to be picked up in a long Georgia practice, has, according to common report, not displayed that erudition and profundity in the more abstruse matters of national jurisprudence that that good old instrument requires.—N. Y. Herald.

The Herald gets Akerman out of the scrape at the expense of Georgia. It intimates that that functionary knows as much law as could be obtained in a long Georgia practice, but that some other schooling is necessary to make an Attorney General.

The Herald is surely joking. Georgia has furnished several very able Attorney Generals for the United States. Not the least conspicuous among them was the Hon. John McPherson Berrien, as able and learned, as luminous and distinguished a lawyer as ever shone in the legal records of the country.

It won't do, Mr. Herald. Akerman's incompetency and failure are Akerman's matter and not Georgia's.

Foster Blodgett and The Seago-Blodgett Company.

Foster Blodgett's reputation as a practical joker must inevitably chrystalize into history. His letter, taken from the Era, and found on our first page, in reply to Mr. Seago and the remaining members of the Seago-Blodgett Company, expelling him from that company, is the most interesting, enlivening and racy document that we have read in a long time. It is unctuous and piquant in the extreme. It fully sustains its author's fame as an inimitable joker. It keeps the reader in a broad grin from beginning to end. It is full of that simple-minded frankness, that strong regard for right, that ingenuous humor that have become identified with its author.

Its revelations are as rich as unexpected, while the vien of sly but most unmistakable humor running through gives a keen zest to the exposures.

Mr. Blodgett don't mean to leave "our company." He will neither be bought, cajoled or kicked out. This is wise. Fifty thousand dollars for ten is too much of a sacrifice. He agreed to take ten thousand, but couldn't get it. We agree with him that ten thousand or nothing is the policy.

The statement that he was to be used in bribing a high official, evidently Governor Bullock, is a very grave matter indeed. Yet even this has its funny features. Blodgett's gush of indignation at it, and his encomium upon the high official alluded to, give the matter the proper moral status. The statement that the company wanted him to play, go out, while he secretly remained in, is a companion picture to the bribery statement. This ingenious way of getting rid of a dead weight should be patented. The bold, unflinching stand [illegible] against all these highly "immoral" practices [illegible] Blodgett should go far to show up the sturdy [illegible]rity of his virtuous nature.

Above all the telling jocularity of [illegible] Blodgett, is exhibited in the stern fidelity he exhibits to "our company," and at the same time in the invigorating and irrepressible veracity with which he lets out a series of revelations that, if true, will knock the pressions of the company into so many fragments and scatter them so far, that it would [illegible]nturies to gather and unite them.

[illegible]ll diverting, but we and the public [illegible]to know about those three notes.

Card from Mr. Dooly—He Inquires About that Switch.

ATLANTA, GA., June 28, 1871.

Editor Constitution: I see a statement in your paper this morning, that the Western and Atlantic Railroad paid A. L. Harris $2,700 for the use of a certain railroad switch, (said to belong to him.) As the switch has not been put in use on the Western and Atlantic Railroad in more than one place, it being found entirely unfit for the purpose for which it was intended, I thought perhaps you might have been misinformed, and in justice, that I would make this statement:

That I was paid in the early part of 1868 $2,760 for the use of my switch, which has been in use ever since, giving perfect satisfaction—so much so that the present lessees have ordered it put down on the entire line of road. You will see by reading my pamphlet that I guarantee my switch when manufactured and put down as specification calls for, and that I will pay $100 for every switch so put down which does not give satisfaction, which is a very safe investment for the State, as there are enough of them in use now to pay five times the amount the State paid me, if my switch was not what I represented.

I write this thinking there might be injustice done Mr. Harris, as I never heard of the State buying his switch. Respectfully,

M. H. DOOLY.

The "New Departure."

An allusion to ourselves, made by a correspondent who writes on this prolific subject, makes it pertinent for us to accompany the publication of his contribution with a few words.

We have had but little to say concerning what ought to be done in the National Democratic platform, because we regard a discussion of the subject now as uncalled for, if not mischievous. We of the South have nowhere else to go but with the National Democratic party in the next Presidential contest. We do not distrust the fidelity of that party to the great principles of the Federal Constitution, chief among which is its admirable adjustment of the respective rights of the people, of the States, and of the Federal Government. Neither do we doubt the disposition and resolution of the Democratic party of the North to relieve the South of the unconstitutional and oppressive legislation of Congress. Whatever platform the National Democracy may adopt, we are satisfied that under their rule the Southern States will be left to manage their own domestic affairs and ob restored to the right of self-government—as much so as we are satisfied that under Radical rule, with any sort of a platform, we will still be governed as tyrant conquerors govern the conquered. With this conviction, we are willing to forbear to press upon the party any issue whose present agitation may serve to distract or weaken it.

We feel solicitude only that the Democratic party shall not commit itself to any abandonment or change of principle. According to our correspondent's understanding, the "new departure" does not do this, because it stops short of recognizing the 14th and 15th Amendments as fairly and regularly adopted and de jure parts of the Constitution. But we are sure that one or two of the Democratic State Conventions of the North, that have expressed themselves on these questions, did declare that those amendments had been fully and regularly ratified and were rightfully parts of the Constitution. We have not the resolutions before us, but such, we are confident, was the declaration of the Pennsylvania Convention, and we think of at least one other Democratic State Convention. We are solicitous that the Democratic party shall avoid such a commitment as this, and further we are not apprehensive it will in its platform. Let it ignore what may choose to be [illegible]Northern Democratic friends be content. We can [illegible]go by," and we shall if their hands are not tied. [illegible]ut to do right, cannot afford to risk the incurring the South other four years' term of Radical rule by demanding too much of our friends at the North; nor need we be very anxious to make the national Democratic party establish for itself a programme going far beyond the possibility of its accomplishment, by legislative action, within the four years' term of administration for which it is now contending.—Columbus Enquirer.

Emigration.

It is hard to convince our people that it is of vital importance to invite emigration to Georgia. While miles of country are lying waste and uninhabited, the West is rapidly filling up with a thrifty, progressive population, which is developing its resources to a most wonderful extent. Hills are dug down, marshes are drained, and towns are built and become great cities in a few years, while we jog along as did our grandfathers before us, tilling one acre out of hundreds and adding a house or two to a town in as many years. And yet, with these facts patent to fill, no serious efforts have been made to induce emigrants to settle in the State.

A Swede who has lived some time in Georgia, but is now in his native country, wrote, not long ago, to a State paper, saying that there were numbers of his countrymen who were willing and anxious to settle here if proper offers were made them, and we have no doubt but that many of the industrious peasants and artisans of other countries in Europe would follow their example if the health and resources of the State were made known to them, and the right invitation to make it their home was extended. If this was done, and they could be induced to settle among us, there would then be no reason to prevent Georgia from becoming as prosperous as any of the great States of the West.—Augusta Constitutionalist.

☞ The Alabama papers contain the announcement of the marriage of Judge A. J. Walker, late Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of that State, to the accomplished Miss Carrie Nesbitt, of Jacksonville which occurred on Monday last.

☞ The very latest idea in the fashionable world is the "Moonlight German"—full dress, no lights, windows wide open, silvery moonlight streaming in in floods, delicious waltzes enchanting the air, and flirting perfectly unembarrassed.

ATLANTA:

THURSDAY, JUNE 29, 1871.

City Intelligence.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—John Kenny, the prince of merchant tailors, is now prepared to make up in the most fashionable manner a large and choice assortment of cloths, cassimeres, vestings and cheviots for summer wear. For fits call on Kenny.

A public examination of the pupils of Hoganaville Institute will be had on the 3d, 4th and 5th of July. Rev. Dr. Hornady preaches the commencement sermon on Sunday, July 2d. Hon. C. Peeples delivers the annual address on the 5th of July, and the Grand Concert takes place on that night.

To-day the silver and glass ware, contents of linen room, bed-room furniture, bedsteads, oil cloths, carpets, etc., at the National Hotel will be sold at assignee's sale.

Col. Reuben Arnold announces that he will be absent from the city about ten days.

A small roan mare strayed away on West Peters street, on the 27th inst. See notice.

A heart-shaped locket charm was lost on the 27th. The finder will confer with Capt. John Keely.

A cage containing three mocking birds was stolen from a yard on McDonough street. See notice for particulars.

RETURNED.—Rev. W. H. Strickland has returned after two week's sojourn at Athens, Alabama.

ELEGANT STORE TO RENT.—McBride & Co. have an elegant and commodious store to rent.

CHESS.—The champion chess player has been in the city for two days, vanquishing all who play with him.

GOOD TEMPLARS.—Floral Lodge, Good Templars, meet on Friday night, Odd Fellows Hall, corner Broad and Mitchell streets.

BEER.—John Peel has the celebrated Milwaukee Lager Beer for sale. It is said to be the finest ever brought to this market.

FINE CIGARS.—John Peel has real Havana cigars that eclipse anything in that line ever seen in the South. Buy one and you'll be sure to puff it.

NEW LOCOMOTIVE.—An engine, the "Augusta," came up yesterday from Augusta for the purpose of being used on the accommodation train between here and Stone Mountain.

PERSONAL.—Colonel Reuben Arnold left last night for Tallulah Falls, where he will rusticate for a while. T. W. J. Hill, Esq., is summering at the springs near Gainesville. Hon. E. P. Howell is trying the virtues of the springs at Duluth.

MASONIC ASSURANCE.—The members of the Southern Masonic Assurance Society, are requested to call on J. S. Stewart, Secretary and Treasurer, and pay their third, fourth and fifth assessments.

JUSTICE OF PEACE.—W. T. Holderness is announced as a candidate for Justice of the Peace, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Justice Spencer. Mr. Holderness possesses all the qualifications laid down by Jefferson, and we hope will be elected.

DON'T LET IT GO.—It is rumored that parties from a neighboring town are negotiating for the purchase of the hand engine of Tallulah Fire Company. We hope that it will not be allowed to be sold outside of the city. Let it be sold to some good company here, and retained in our midst.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Yesterday Mayor Hammond held court nearly all day. Squire Andrews, the leader of the embryo riot at the Rolling Mill, was, after a lengthy trial, found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $50, and work in the work gang for thirty days. Fines footed up about $65.

THAT BABY SHOW.—General inquiry is being made as to what the Atlanta Agricultural and Industrial Association will do about that baby show. We learn that certain gentlemen, in this city, applied to the Association, by letter, for permission to hold one at Oglethorpe Park, but failed to receive any reply.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.—If you wish to see new and valuable agricultural implements, call at Anderson & Wells', on Alabama street, and look at the Revolving Harrows, Feed Cutters, Grain Drills, Post Hole Diggers, Plows, Farm Pumps, etc. They are receiving daily large accessions to their stock, and are rapidly taking a hold upon the attention of farmers, by the energy they display in endeavoring to supply their wants. Call and see them.

CUTTING SCRAPS.—Jacob Elf and Alex. Bernhardt had a mass yesterday at the corner of White-hall and Alabama streets with William Dunlap. In the contest, Elf was cut in three places; one cut under the left arm; another several inches below it on the back, and another in the abdomen. The two first wounds are severe, though, it is thought, not dangerous. The parties will have a hearing before Mayor Hammond on the subject.

UNSUCCESSFUL.—An unsuccessful effort was made a few nights ago to rob a church. The foundation for a new church edifice has been laid at the corner of Mitchell and Haynes streets for Friendship colored Baptist Church, but the corner stone has not been laid. Some impertinents wretch, thinking howling Dutch, General Lee, and others. All at reduced price.

EXAMINATIONS, MONDAY, JUNE 26.—Arithmetic, 9d; U. S. History, English Composition, Reading, Ancient History, Cæsar, Virgil and Anabasis.

EXAMINATIONS, TUESDAY, JUNE 27.—Grammar, Arithmetic, 1st; Homer, Geometry, Reading, Latin Lessons, Greek Testament, Algera, Cicero.

We were not prepared to believe what we witnessed. To see colored boys and girls between fourteen and eighteen years of age, reciting in Greek and Latin, and demonstrating correctly problems in Algebra and Geometry, and seemingly understanding what they demonstrated appear almost wonderful.

Mr. E. E. Ware is the principal, assisted by his wife, Miss Tarbell, Mr. and Mrs. Chase, and Mrs. Case. Miss Pomeroy has charge of the Musical Department, and judging by the proficiency of the pupils she must be an excellent teacher of music.

The third day was devoted to rhetorical exercises, interspersed with music. Rev. W. B. Brown, of Newark, N. J., delivered a most excellent address, eschewing politics entirely, and inculcating as essential to the development of moral and intellectual greatness, Industry, Education and Religion. He enforced his cardinal points in a logical and eloquent style. He was followed by Hon. Joseph E. Brown, President of the Board of Visitors, who, after expressing the satisfaction of the Board with what they had seen and heard, endorsed the good advice given by Rev. Mr. Brown. He awarded to the teachers special praise for their energy and efficiency in training and instructing the students. Rev. David Wills, in a few remarks, thought that the African race would never be capable of advancing in knowledge to the heights attained by the Caucasian race. Although his sentiments were at variance with the belief of the teachers, his remarks were well received.

There was a large crowd in attendance yesterday, to witness the exercises.

The Board of Visitors went through every department of the University, and were pleased with the neatness, order and discipline maintained in every one.

We are reliably informed that the teachers do not allow any political discussions, or anything tending to produce a feeling of animosity between the races, to be said or done within the precincts of the University.

There are one hundred and sixty students in attendance from this and adjoining States. The students who come from a distance obtain board and tuition at $11 per month, while those in the city are only charged $1 per month. The University owns some $90 000 worth of property. They receive $8,000 per annum from the State of Georgia. Some of the most proficient and advanced scholars, strange as it may seem, are genuine coal-black Africans.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.—Yesterday morning Justice R. A. Johnson rendered his reserved decision in the case of R. P. S. Kimbro vs. The Bank of Fulton. The only question to be passed upon by the court was whether the act passed by the Legislature on the 16th day of March, 1869, entitled an act in relation to limitation and for other purposes, includes banknills within its provisions, the other pleas of the defendant having been disposed of on the previous argument.

The court gave judgement in favor of the plaintiff for the amount sued and costs, holding that banknills did not come within the provisions and intention of the aforesaid act, for the reason that they were money, were so recognized in all business transactions, and as a necessary consequence could not be barred, declining, however, to pass upon the constitutionality of the act. This decision will doubtless influence the action of many other innocent bill-holders who have heretofore thought that a recovery was impossible.

PLEASANT RECEPTION.—Col. W. J. McGill, Agent of the Cotton States Life Insurance Company and Mr. Joseph Thompson, Jr., of the Washington Company opened a fine suite of rooms in the Kimball House yesterday, and had a reception. It was a most delightful occasion, and attended by a large number of our leading citizens, who participated in its pleasant fellowship, and enjoyed the generous flow of wine.

The Cotton States is a Southern institution, and has gained a firm, solid basis. Col. McGill is loaning its money among our people here—a satisactory and gratifying evidence of permanent local establishment.

The suite of rooms is elegantly fixed up, and affords a convincing evidence of the progress of the Company. Dr. Ray, the examining physician, has one of the rooms.

[illegible] continued prosperity.

AN ATLANTA ENTERPRISE.—Mr. W. A. Slaymaker is now manufacturing in this city, school furniture of his own patent, which he is enabled to furnish to educational institutions at reasonable rates. He has five or six different styles of school seats and desks, some with desk and seat combined, and others separate. They are light, durable and in accordance with the demands of the age. They are what the wants of our schools demand. We are strong advocates for fostering home enterprises. We are for sustaining and building up our own mechanics and artisans. The money paid to home institutions is spent in our midst, while that sent abroad is so much taken from circulation. Good policy and our own interests demand at our hands that we should encourage all such enterprises as that inaugurated by Mr. Slaymaker. We commend this enterprise to the attention of the trustees and principals of educational institutions in the State.

PHILLIP'S & CREW have in store the most elegant chromos: embracing The Changed Cross, Innocence, Hope, Falconer's Bride, Sunset on the Elbe, Madonna de la Sedia, Easter Morning, Sleeping Beauty, General Lee, and others. All at reduced price.

UNIVERSITY PUBLISHING COMPANY.—W. A. Slaymaker, general agent of the University Publishing Company, has opened an office up stairs over Phillips & Crew's, on Marietta street. Here he keeps specimens of all the publications of this company. These works are noted for their non-sectarian, non-sectional and non-partisan character. They are fast working their way by the force of merit into public favor. Our own revered General [illegible] ton is Vice President of the company.

Mr. Slaymaker has swung to the breeze a handsome sign painted by McClure & Harry, of this city. The sign attracts attention by its beauty. The teachers and professors will do well to call, examine the series of school books published by this enterprising Southern Company.

RESOLUTIONS COMPLIMENTARY TO COL. WALLACE.—At a meeting held this day at the orchard of Mr. J. R. Wallace, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, J. R. Wallace has, with his accustomed liberality, invited a large number of persons to visit [illegible] ation; and

Whereas, we have examined his specimens of growth with much interest and pride; therefore,

Resolved, That the thanks of this meeting, as well as thanks of the people of Georgia, are due to Mr. Wallace for the energy and enterprise he has displayed in his selections of [illegible] and early bearing; knowing that fruit, as well as [illegible] be employed in the solution of [illegible] question.

That we hereby tender Mr. Wallace our [illegible] for his collation so generously [illegible].

A. W. HOLT, Chairman.

GOLD MINES For Sale.

THE GOLD MINES near Grantville, in Meriwether county, belonging to W. B. Smith and J. H. Phillips are now for sale. Sufficient tests have been made to prove their value. There has been more than one thousand pennyweights panned out of a small pit; and persons with no facilities but a hammer and pan have made from five to ten pennyweights to the hand per day. New discoveries and developments are being continually made in these mines, and on the adjoining lands that are certainly very promising, but not caring to enter more extensively into the mining operations, we will sell the mines, together with one hundred acres of land, on such terms that capitalists can make it to their interest to buy. All we ask is for any person wishing a bargain to go to the mines and see and test for themselves.

We would refer any person contemplating a purchase to E. W. Holland or Cook & Cook, Atlanta, Ga., or I. N. Smith at the mines. For prices, etc., apply to Judge W. B. Smith, Atlanta, or John H. Phillips at the mines, or to the undersigned at Grantville.

WHY TRUTH GOES NAKED.

'Tis by a tale worth the air
Of all who wit and sense admire;
Invented—if he was the sharper—
Some ages prior to Matthew Prior.
Falsehood and Truth, upon a time,
One day in June's delicious weather,
('Twas in a distant age and clime)
Like sister, took a walk together.
On, on, their merry way they took,
Through fragrant wood and verdant meadow
To where a beech beside a brook
Invited rest beneath its shadow.
There, sitting in the pleasant shade,
Upon the margin's grassy matting,
(A velvet cushion ready made,)
The young companions fell to chatting.
Now, while in voluble discourse,
On this and that their tongues were running,
As habit bids each speak—perforce,
The one is frank; the other cunning.
Falsehood, at length, impatient grown
With scandals of her own creation,
Said, "Into we two are quite alone,
And nicely screened from observation.
Suppose in this delightful rift,
While all around is so propitious,
We take a bath?"—"Good Truth, "I will—
A bath. I'm sure, will be delicious!"
At this her robe she cast aside,
And in the stream ran before her
She plunged—like Ocean's happy bride—
As naked as her mother bore her!
Falsehood at leisure now undressed,
Put off the robes her ills he that hamper,
And having donned Truth's snowy vest,
Ran off as fast as she could scamper.
Since then the subtle maid, in sooth,
Expert in lies and shrewd evasions,
Has borne the honest name of Truth,
And wears her clothes on all occasions.
While Truth, disdaining to appear
In Falsehood's petticoat and boddice,
Still braves all eyes from year to year,
As naked as a marble goddess!

☞ The Tichborne Baronetcy case in England has brought out the following parody:

Wits fingers weary and worn,
With eyes sore with spectacles red,
A Judge sat at home on the Derby Day
Jotting his notes in his head.
Tich, itch, itch
While others were having their sport,
And still with a voice of colorous pitch
He sang the Song of the Court.

☞ The following is a succinct but spirited account of the history of the Kilkenny cats:

There onst was two cats in Kilkenny,
And each thought there was one cat too many;
So they quarrelled and fit,
And they scratched and they bit,
Till, excepting their nails
And the tips of their tails,
Instead of two cats, there wasn't any.

THE SUGAR CROP.—From Louisiana comes gratifying news, that from present indications, this year's sugar crop is expected to reach 180,000 hogsheads, which is more than the average yield since the war. In 1861 the product was 449,410 hogsheads, but the "unpleasantness" almost completely annihilated the sugar interest of the State, and in 64 the production had sunk to 6,668 hogsheads. With the re-establishment of peace it gradually rose again, however, and slowly recovered some of its former significance, notwithstanding the many drawbacks and retarding influences with which it necessarily had to contend, as a natural consequence of the new order of things and difficulty with which suitable labor was obtained. In 1869 the product amounted to 37,000 hogsheads, which will, in all probability be for the present year increased fully one half.

☞ The other day a sharp-looking little boy, with a shock of light brown hair that looked as though it had no very recent acquaintance with comb and brush, said to his teacher very abruptly: "Teacher, I ain't coming to school any more." "Not coming to school any more! Why, what's the matter, don't you like your teacher?" "O, jimini! don't I! you bet. But I'm agoin' back to the theatre!" "Back to the theatre!" "Why, yes, I act, I does." "You act! Where?" "Yes I've been on the stage lots. I'm an old hand at it. I was an angel up to the 'Black Crook,' and a bull-frog down to 'White Fawn,' and I tell you what it is, teacher, I'd a heap sight rather be a bull-frog than an angel any day."

☞ Miss Clara Louise Kellogg, having completed her professional labors, is now sojourning at her elegant villa at Cold Spring, on the Hudson, which she purchased this season. Miss Abbott, the protege of Miss Kellogg, it is said, will make her debut in opera next season. It is not generally known that our favorite prima donna has evinced a early interest in the musical education of the young lady, who gives such fine promise of taking a position among our native lyric stars.

☞ A Northern correspondent of a Baltimore paper writes:

As an item of sporting news, let us say that Harvard and Yale will buckle to the white ash in eight-oared shells on the 15th inst., at Marlboro, Massachusetts, and gaily skim the placid waters of Lake Ogguloniknguamesut. There is but one lake of this name in the town, so you will have no trouble in finding it.

☞ Mr. Lincoln was exceedingly astonished one day as he was inspecting the prison in Washington, by a prisoner who said to him: "How are you, Mr. President? I am glad to see you. I believe that you and I have been in every jail in the Union." "This and the jail in Springfield are the only ones I was ever in in my life," said Mr. Lincoln. "Very likely," responded the rogue, "but I've been in all the rest."

Dr. J. H. Bradfield—DEAR SIR: We cheerfully bear testimony to the efficacy and popularity of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator. NATURE'S GREAT RESTORER!

CELEBRATED
BITTER CORDIAL!

WHOLESALE DEPOT,
Northwest Cor. Fifth and Race Streets, Philadelphia.
JACOB SCHEETZ, Sole Prop't.

IT is a reliable Family Medicine, and can be taken by either infant or adult with the same beneficial results. It is a certain, prompt, and speedy remedy for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Bowel Complaint, Dyspepsia, Lowness of Spirits, Faintings, Sick Stomach, Headache, etc. For Chills and Fevers of all kinds, it is far better and safer than quinine, without any of its pernicious effects. It creates an appetite, proves a powerful digester of food, and will counteract the effects of liquor in a few minutes. As an indisputable evidence of its medical proprieties, we append a few of the many certificates in our possession.

CUMBERLAND IRON WORKS, TENN.,
October 12th, 1869.

Jacob Scheetz, M. D.—Dear Sir: This is to certify that I have been having the chills for the last twelve months. I tried all medicines recommended to me for the disease, without receiving any benefit. Having heard Scheetz's Bitters highly spoken of, I procured a bottle, and finding some relief, I continued it until I am happy to say that I am completely well. I not only consider the Bitters a sovereign remedy for chills, but I believe, it a preventive, and cheerfully recommend it to the afflicted.

Yours very truly, MOLLIE HART.

PHILADELPHIA, February 17th, 1868.

Dear Sir: This is to certify that I have been intimately acquainted with Scheetz's Celebrated Bitter Cordial for the past four years, and have seen its effects in Dyspepsia, Nervous Diseases, Rheumatism, and all the various forms of general debility tending to decline, and from my knowledge of said bitters, I have no hesitation in pronouncing them the best general remedy for the above diseases that is known. You may use this in any way you desire.

WM. CLARK, M. D.,
No. 816 Market St., and N. E. Cor. 6th and Callowhill.

Mr. Jacob Scheetz—Dear Sir: It affords me much pleasure to inform you that after suffering for fifteen months with Chills and Fever, I was induced to use your justly celebrated Bitter Cordial, which effected a permanent cure, only used one half pint last August, and had not a chill since. You are at liberty to use this as you please.

TREAT THE HUMAN MACHINE GENTLY. The winding passage, 30 feet in length, through which the main portion of waste matter of the system is discharged, is lined with a membrance as delicate as silk, and as sensitive as a net work of nerves can make it. The best and safest remedy in such cases is that mild balsamic and delightful tonic laxative,

7-30 GOLD LOAN
OF THE
Northern Pacific Railroad.
RAPID PROGRESS OF THE WORK.

THE building of the Northern Pacific Railroad (begun July last) is being pushed forward with great energy from both extremities of the line. Several thousand men are employed in Minnesota and on the Pacific coast. The grade is nearly completed 266 miles westward from Lake Superior; trains are running over 130 miles of finished road, and track laying is rapidly progressing toward the eastern border of Dakota. Including its purchase of the St. Paul and Pacific Road, the Northern Pacific Company now has 412 miles of completed road, and by September next this will be increased to at least 560.

A Good Investment.—Jay Cooke & Co. are now selling, and unhesitatingly recommend, as a Profitable and perfectly Safe Investment, the First Mortgage Land Grant Gold Bonds of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company. They have 30 years to run, bear Seven and Three-Tenths per cent. gold interest, (more than 9 per cent. currency,) and are secured by first and only mortgage on the ENTIRE ROAD AND ITS EQUIPMENTS, and also, as fast as the Road is completed, on 23,000 Acres of Land to every mile of track or 500 Acres for each $1,000 Bond. They are exempt from United States Tax; Principal and Interest are payable in Gold; Denominations: Coupons, $100 to $1,000; Registered, $100 to $10,000.

Lands for Bonds.—Northern Pacific 7-30's are at all times receivable at TEN PER CENT. ABOVE PAR, in exchange for the Company's Lands, at their lowest cash price. This renders them practically INTEREST BEARING LAND WARRANTS.

Sinking Fund.—The proceeds of all sales of Lands are required to be devoted to the re-purchase and cancelation of the First Mortgage Bonds of the Company. The Land Grant of the Road exceeds Fifty Million Acres. This immense Sinking Fund will annually reduce the principal of the Company's funded debt before it falls due. With their ample security and high rate of interest, they are a most DESIRABLE INVESTMENT.

Exchanging U. S. Five-Twenties.—The success of the New Government 5 per cent. Loan will compel the early surrender of United States 6 per cents. Many holders of Five-Twenties are now exchanging them for Northern Pacific Seven-Thirties, thus realizing a handsome profit, and greatly increasing their yearly income.

Other Securities.—All marketable Stocks and Bonds will be received at their highest current price in exchange for Northern Pacific Seven-Thirties EXPRESS CHARGES on Money or Bonds received, and on Seven-Thirties sent in return, will be paid by the Financial Agents. It is the most simple and easily regulated Machine now in use.

The shuttle gives an even tension from the full to the empty bobbin.

Makes the most durable, elastic and smooth stitch.

Stitching the softest muslin without drawing it into the feed, and from that to heavy cloth or leather without changing the tension, making it capable of a greater range of work than any other machine made.
